

Towards Success and Wellbeing 21st Century Skills Course

Introduction

The course is available in English and Arabic for learners ages 16-25. It consists of five modules:

About the course

- Emotional competencies
- Communication skills, teamwork and empathy
- Understanding conflict
- Problem solving, critical thinking and conflict resolution
- Identity, gender and power

About us

International Alert, an international peace-building organisation, developed the course with the participation of Lebanese and Syrian students living in Lebanon. The course was made possible with the financial support of the European Union, through the EU Regional Trust Fund in response, to the Syrian crisis, the 'EU Madad Fund' and the HOPES-LEB project, and additional support from the Safe to Learn Initiative.

The platform

The Kiron Campus learning platform provides access to quality online study programs for professional and personal growth to refugees and underserved communities. It offers free-of-charge, certified courses developed by different course providers and partners. The platform is currently the digital home for over 10,000 students based in over 50 different countries, including Lebanon and Jordan.

Towards Success and Wellbeing 21st Century Skills Course

You can complete this course at your own pace. Each module consists of three lessons and some lessons are split into parts.

We have used a simple system to indicate the order of the lessons:

- U stands for 'unit', and in the Arabic version of the course, AU stands for 'Arabic unit'
- L stands for 'lesson' and P stands for 'part'
- So, U4-L1-P1 is Unit 4 (or Module 4), Lesson 1, Part 1

03

Following the course

You can move from one lesson (part) to another by clicking on the 'Next' button once you complete all the exercises.

You can always go back to an earlier lesson and revise what you have learned. Once you complete the entire course you can get your certificate.
